Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Philpott on November 20, 2009.

The application has been amended as follows: In claim 2, line 5, --at least one-- is inserted after "and". In claim 5, line 3, "said" is deleted. In claim 16, line 3, "by" is replaced with --be--. In claim 25, line 27, "mechanism" is replaced with --member--.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The examiner has adopted the positions set forth by applicant in the REMARKS filed on August 3, 2009. The prior art does not teach the claimed solenoid having a spring with a spring rate which substantially matches the power curve of the solenoid.
